

A mile high Coors Field baseball stadium

Denver Downtown

Denver International Airport

IEEE

Industrial Electronics Society annual IECON conferences:

- ...
- 24-th IECON'1998 in Aachen, Germany
- 25-th IECON'1999 in San Jose, USA
- 26-th IECON'2000 in Nagoya, Japan
- 27-th IECON'2001 in Denver, USA
- 28-th IECON'2002 in Seville, Spain
- ...

What you should know about Denver and Colorado?

Denver is the largest city within a 600-mile radius, an area almost the size of Europe. It is the cultural, shopping, and entertainment capital of this vast region. Denver is the nation's most highly educated city with the highest percentage of high school and college graduates. Denver receives 300 days of sunshine a year -- more annual hours of sun than San Diego or Miami Beach. Many world famous ski resorts surround Denver. It has the nation's second largest performing arts center. Denver has the newest and one of the most advanced airports ever built. It is the first airport designed to move your body and your mind. Denver is the home city of the Broncos, the professional football team recognized as the best in the world. Denver has the largest city park system in the nation. It also has one of the most gorgeous sunsets on Earth and it entertains over 8.8 million visitors a year. In the Denver area there is the second largest in the nation concentration of high-tech industry with several semiconductor foundries with minimum feature size below 0.25µm. Denver brews more beer than any other American city.

Hyatt Regency as home for IECON2001

Hyatt Regency Tech Center is strategically positioned at the entrance of the world-renowned Denver Technological Center. Rising 12 stories, this property offers breathtaking views of the Rocky Mountain Front Range and the downtown skyline. Standard guest rooms are recognized as the finest accommodations in southeast Denver. The meeting facilities accommodate up to 1,300 guests.

Special rate for IECON from Nov 29 (Thu) through Dec 2 (Sun) $89.

